Overview

Embark on a trip filled with the glitz of Istanbul to the rustic Ottoman Empire's first capital, Bursa, on our Istanbul and Bursa 4-Day Package. The Ottoman Empire influenced so much of Turkish culture through centuries of control, and this trip will take you to some of Bursa's most important buildings. Enjoy exploring the Green Mosque, Hagia Sophia, Cumalikizik, Obelisk of Theodosius, Serpent Column, Blue Mosque, and so much more! All with comfortable accommodations, airport transfers and guided tours.

Itineraries

Arrival

Begin your adventure upon arrival at Istanbul airport. Our tour team will welcome you at the airport and provide the accommodations to transfer you to Bursa.

Bursa Tour

After arriving in Bursa, enjoy a traditional breakfast and get ready to depart for a full-day Bursa tour. We will visit Cumalikizik, 800 years old Turkish village, and the Tophane area, where Osman Ghazi and Orhan Ghazi, the founders of the Ottoman dynasty were laid for their final rest in two ancient Byzantine structures. From the Tophane tour, continue to explore the Green Mosque and Tomb. The tour ends by visiting Bursa Grand Mosque; built in the Seljuk style and ordered by the Ottoman Sultan Bayezid I in the late 1300s.

Arrival

After breakfast, check out from the hotel in Bursa and pack up to arrive in Istanbul.

Istanbul Tour

After arriving in Istanbul, get ready to enjoy the Istanbul Old City tour, which will start after breakfast. Sultanahmet Square is the main point where the living heritage of both Byzantines and Ottomans can be seen. We will see The German Fountain, the Obelisk of Theodosius, the Serpent Column, the Blue Mosque, the Hagia Sophia, and the Topkapi Palace Museum. Return back to the hotel for an overnight stay.

Istanbul Tour

After breakfast, depart for a full-day city tour with private vans. Starting from Balat, the historical Greek and Jewish neighbourhood of the Ottoman Era, the tour will also include visits to the Ayub Al Ansari Tomb, Taksim, Galata, and the heart of trade during the Ottoman Era. After a short break, embark on a boat for the Bosphorus Cruise Tour. Arrive back to the hotel and relax for the day.

Check Out

Check out and leave for the airport to catch the flight back home.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How do I book a tour?

It is simple to book a tour. You can fill out the form given in each tour listing. If you're confused, you can call our agents at +1-201-366-1155 or send an email to info@ilinkturkey.com. You will receive a prompt answer describing the alternatives available to you.

2. How do I get a visa to visit Turkey?

Visitors may simply apply for a tourist visa in just a few clicks at www.evisa.gov.tr and begin exploring Turkey's unique wonders the moment they arrive.

3. Do I need vaccinations for Turkey?

Please consult your primary care physician or a travel doctor. We are unable to provide medical advice on whether or not you require vaccines. People travelling to Turkey, in general, do not get vaccinations because there are no regulatory requirements. If you need vaccinations, see your doctor one month before you leave your native country.

4. Is the internet widely available throughout a tour?

Most hotels in Turkey have internet access which they make available to clients. Reception can provide you with the password. Before using it, always check to see whether there is a fee. Most cafés and restaurants provide free internet to clients. Otherwise, internet cafés may be found in most major cities and towns.

5. What are the opening hours for monuments and historical sites in Turkey?

The majority of monuments and historical sites in Turkey are open from 9:00 to 17:00. On Monday, all museums in Turkey are closed. Remember that these hours will change drastically during Ramadan, the Islamic holy month.

6. Which currency will I be using during my stay?

Turkey's official currency is the Turkish Lira.

7. What are the check-in and check-out times at hotels in Turkey?

Most hotels in Turkey, like many others across the world, have check-in times around noon, 12, or 1 PM. If you check in or out late at night or early in the morning, you may have to pay for an extra night to access your room without having to wait until the standard check-in time.
